

IT Study Answers

1) Windows and Android are examples of Operating Systems

Answer: True

Both are Operating Systems. Windows = for computers, Android = for phones/tablets.

2) What was a key feature of Web 2.0? Increased interactivity of websites

Answer: True

Web 2.0 is called the "social web" because users could comment, share, and upload content.

3) What is IoT? Embedding everyday objects with technology to connect

Answer: True

IoT = Internet of Things. E.g. Smart TV, Smart Fridge, Smart Watch.

4) Where can you find icons such as date...? The taskbar

Answer: True

On Windows, the date and time icons are on the bottom right of the Taskbar.

5) Which type of password is not typed? Biometric

Answer: True

Biometric = fingerprint, face scan, eye scan. You don't type it.

6) How can you rename an existing folder? By right clicking the folder and selecting rename

Answer: True

Right click > Rename, or press F2.

7) What is the purpose of using quotes in a search query? To fetch pages with exact wording

Answer: True

Quotes ("...") perform an exact phrase search on Google.

8) What is the function of the site operator...? It focuses the search on a single website

Answer: True

Example: site:facebook.com will only search Facebook.

9) What is the fastest way to return to the previous page online? By clicking the back button

Answer: True

The back arrow in your browser.

10) Who uses cookies to track which websites you visit? Advertisers

Answer: True

Cookies track your browsing so advertisers can show you targeted ads.